

WORLD NEWS IN PICTURES

FORT WILLIAM, ONT., GIRLS' PIPE BAND—Hailed as "the most beautiful pipes in the land" the Fort William, Ont., girls' pipe band was a big hit when they played at Hamilton, Ont. Laura Crowe, drummer, has a tough job in hot weather. The girls attended mass gathering of Scottish pipe bands at Hamilton, Ont., and later moved off for a spot of sight-seeing at Niagara Falls, where scores of camera fans snapped Shirley Murphy, Mary Armstrong and Mae Ross.

PRAIRIE FLOODS STALL TRAINS AT BRANDON, MAN.—Prairie floods turned back this train at Brandon, Man., after the Red river went on a rampage. Mrs. Hazel Detenbeck of Hurlis township near Fort Erie, a passenger, was going to visit her parents at Swan Lake, Man. She returned to her home when the train couldn't get through. She said miles of prairie land are flooded.

FINDS LOST HUSBAND SENTENCED TO DEATH—For 15 years, Mrs. Muriel Presutti, seen here, of Sunderland, Eng., mourned her Czech husband, who disappeared soon after their marriage. Now she has learned that Augustus Presutti, her husband, has been convicted at a Getaago agent and condemned to be shot as a traitor in Prague.

AGHA KHAN, MODERN CROCODUS, REPORTED NEAR DEATH—Spiritual leader of 20,000,000 Shiite Moslems and perhaps the richest man in the world, Agha Khan, 69, is reported seriously ill in Switzerland. At his diamond jubilee in 1946 he was presented with his weight in diamonds. Photo shows weighing-in ceremony when he tipped the scales at 243½ pounds, the equivalent of $2,600,000 in diamonds. Heir to the Agha Khan's multi-million dollar fortune is eldest son, Ali Khan.

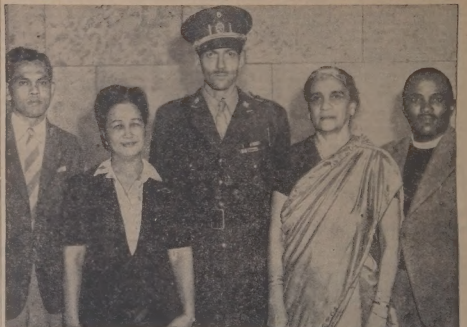

STUDENTS MAKE CANOE TRIP THAT AMAZES INDIANS—Indians were amazed when six medical students from the University of Michigan arrived at Moosejaw after paddling more than 200 miles down the treacherous Manitoba river, in canoe. Hugh Wilson, (center), gets shore from two of his associates. Others are Paul Kumpf, Charles Mack, William Kretschmar, Dave Laurin and Al Jacobson.

OTTAWA STARTS ON 25-YEAR FACE-LIFTING PLAN—"Tuning Fork" bridges over the Rideau canal will be first step in long-range plan to beautify and improve the Federal district in Ottawa. Prime Minister Mackenzie King told the House of Commons, New bridge, seen drawn into aerial view, would relieve traffic bottlenecks around the National War Memorial. Preliminary surveys on the proposed bridge are expected to start this year. Authorities estimate it will take 50 to 75 years to complete beautification plan.

THUANT PRINCE—prince Hamid Reza Pahlavi, 15, of Iran, who played hockey by flying to Paris instead of going fishing, is shown on his arrival at New York's LaGuardia field. Although the prince is prepared to take up his school books again at St. George's school in Newport, R.I., it is reported that he may go to a military academy.

INTERNATIONAL MISSIONARY COUNCIL IN CONVENTION AT WHITBY—Delegates to the first International Missionary Council meeting held in Canada, in convention at Whitby, Ont., from left: Rev. T. Schomburgk, Indonesia; Joseph Hano, Philippines; Col. R. E. Van Gasteren, chief Protestant chaplain of forces in Nigeria; Congo; Mrs. C. Prem Nath Das, Lucknow, India; Rev. S. M. Mokhtari, South Africa.

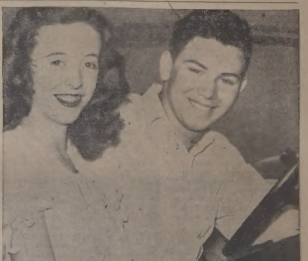

BOYS—EVEN CLEVERLY—WILL BE BOYS—Sliding into a base in a camp ball game, Rev. E. H. McLaughlin, of Galt, is tagged by Rev. W. A. Filer, Peterboro. Their ball game is being played on a 25-acre property at Big Bay Point, Lake Simcoe, where Anglican clergy have set up a summer camp and provided holidays at about five dollars a week for a family.

AT TEACHERS' SUMMER MUSIC SCHOOL—Saxophone and drum are the instruments chosen by Sister M. Stanislaus, (left), of Kitchener, and Sister M. Patricia, of Galt, for their summer music course. Over 90 teachers from all over Ontario are attending the course in Toronto.

ENDS MAN'S MONOPOLY—Inches Lake, about 100 miles north of Rosary in the Chibougamau area of Quebec where she search is on for 1964, may have to change the name. It's not for nothing only say more. Mildred (Kil) Jourdin, former wartime Wren and strictly feminine at 47 pounds, invaded Bachelor Lake when she flew in with her fiancé, Duke Orr, veteran bush pilot, and caught a 10-pound pike while Orr unloaded proprietor's supplies. Believed the first white woman to enter the Bachelor Lake area, Miss Jourdin lives in Rosary with her father, one of the pioneers of the Rosary north country.

TARGET FOR MYSTERY BULLETS—Mystery shots fired at car driven by Lawrence Paradise, 19, of Toronto are being investigated by police. Paradise and his wife, shown here, were driving through Kintore near London when he heard about eight shots as car passed him. Police check of residents of Kintore had established shots were fired. None hit Paradise car.

